

HELLO

Hello.

I'm calling you.
Are you there?
Please answer.
I need your help.

We go back a long way, don't we?
I like to think we were friends
In that past,
and we understood that some things don't last.
It's been a while I know,
since we were there for each other.

But, please . . .

please, do you hear me?

I'm calling you . . .

the you . . .

that is me.
